By Train By Bus
London Victoria and London Bridge main line stations both have frequent and fast direct services to East Croydon, along with the Thameslink service from City Thameslink & Blackfriars.

Gatwick Airport has a direct service to East Croydon along with Clapham Junction which also has a good connecting service.

East Croydon is also accessible by Tram Link, services start from Beckenham Junction Elmers End, New Addington or Wimbledon.

When arriving at East Croydon station, ensure you exit at the main entrance ramps rather than using the pedestrian bridge across the platforms (especially if alighting from the rear of a train). At the main station entrance turn left along Addiscombe Road, you will reach a set of traffic lights, Knollys House will be right in front of you.

By Bus
London Bus services reach Central London, Purley Way, Bromley, Lewisham and places to the south. Route X26, the longest London bus route, runs to Heathrow Airport via Sutton and Kingston.

By Car
M25 junction 7/8 – take the M23 (N) to Croydon. Sat Nav CR0 6SR.

Parking
There are a few visitors spaces at Knollys House but these are on a first come first served basis, you are unable to reserve in advance. There is a public car park nearby and surrounding roads that have parking meters.
