

Health and Safety Policy Statement

Liberata is a business process innovation company that helps customers reinvent complex services, transactions and processing. As a leading provider of services in this field, Liberata places health and safety at the forefront of its commercial activities. We are committed to the prevention of work related injury and ill health and the provision of a safe and healthy working environment for the benefit of employees and other interested parties.

To achieve this Liberata:

- comply with and aim to exceed legislative requirements
- effectively control significant health and safety risks
- develop systems that support safe working practices and the effective organisation of health and safety within a dynamic work environment
- provide appropriate health and safety information and training commensurate with employee roles and responsibilities
- set health and safety objectives and monitor their achievement
- actively support open communication and participation in safety matters at all levels
- promote the wellbeing of Liberata employees by providing a supportive working environment and opportunities for individuals to improve their own health and wellbeing
- work collaboratively with clients and business partners to achieve the highest standards of health and safety within each organisation
- adopt a proactive approach to safety that recognises the value of teamwork and innovation
- seek to encourage best practice and continually improve safety performance

All Liberata employees have a personal responsibility to act in a safe manner and to cooperate with Liberata on health and safety matters at all times.

Charlie Bruin Chief Executive Officer
Liberata UK Limited

To obtain a full copy of our Health and Safety Policy document or for further information please contact sue.cranstoun@liberata.com

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you require any further information.

Email us at: sue.cranstoun@liberata.com or visit our website at: www.liberata.com